| | with thin Raha | ab is mentionedx in the Bible and 6 of those times her name comes a descriptive noun. It seems that God wants us to think "harlot" when we k about Rahab. That is not an easy fact to face. I imagine that at one point ab had given up hope of ever turning her life around. She was trapped in a sed lifestyle. But God had nother ideas. | | | |
| | Rah | ab's message is a stunning depiction of the fact that God can turn into in one shinging moment of | | | |

What we do have about Rahab ws us that God wants to use broken people to accomplish His will. Frankly, e is a lot of Rahab in all of us. For us, she is the picture of the power of the Jesus to transform any life that comes to Him by faith. | | | |

| | Α. | Rahab is a picture of every person who is lost in sin today. You may not be a harlot, but if you have never trusted in Jesus Christ as your personal Lord and Savior, then you are just as in sin and desperately need to be born again. If you are outside Christ today, your are in a and situation. | | | |
| | В. | Your spiritual is a mess | | | |
| | | Rahab lived in a city that was slated for Her lot in life was one of condemnation. God had already determined that Jericho would fall. I'm sure that the people in the city felt pretty confident and reasonably safe behind the walls of their city, but God had already passed a sentence upon them and they were doomed to destruction. So it is with the sinner today! The lost person may feel secure and may not believe that there is any danger. However, the Bible tells us that the lost arealready. | | | |
